Submitted to His Highness.

C

The Laws' Delays' Committee had recommended the appointment of a Fourth Judge for the Chief Court in order to clear off arrears of work in that Court; but on grounds of economy, it was thought sufficient to sanction the establishment of a temporary Additional District Judge for the disposal of some of the pending appeals.

Z

2. 10 It has since been reported, however, that a number of appeals in the Chief Court have been got ready for hearing and that they could be more expeditiously disposed of in the Chief Court by appointing an additional Judge, than by transferring the cases to the Court of the Additional District Judge to be newly constituted. It has also been pointed out that the disposal of the appeals by District Judge would not have the advantage of finality, as a second appeal would, in many cases, still lie to the Chief Court.

3. 11 It is, therefore, proposed to appoint a fourth Judge for a period of one year. The Chief Judge and the Members of Council are agreeable to this proposal, which I accordingly submit for the gracious sanction of His Highness.

Para 5 of G.O.No.P.5239-53/Cts. 263-26-1 dated 5th May 1927 sanctioning the establishment of a temporary Additional District Court at Bangalore for a period not exceeding one year to clear off the existing arrears of work in the Chief Court.

Order No. P.1497-8

Dated, 14th Sept 1927

Since passing the order read above it has come to the notice of Govt. that a large number of appeals pending in the Chief Court have been got ready for hearing, and that they could be more expeditiously disposed of in the Chief Court by appointing a fourth Judge, than by transferring them to the Court of an Additional District Judge which was to be newly constituted. It is also ascertained that in some instances the pending appeals cannot be heard by the present Judges of the Chief Court, by reason of their having dealt with the cases in the lower Courts. Besides, the disposal of the appeals by a District

Judge would not have the advantage of finality, as a second appeal would, in many cases, still lie to the Chief Court.

2. In consideration of these circumstances, Govt. are pleased to accept the recommendation of the Law Delays' Committee and to sanction, in supersession of the order read above, the appointment of a Fourth Judge for the Chief Court temporarily for one year, in order to clear off the arrears of work in that Court.

3. The Chief Court is requested to send up proposals for any temporary clerical and menial establishment that may be required by the Fourth Judge, indicating the source from which the extra cost involved by the revised arrangements now sanctioned could be met.

To

Sir,

I am directed to advert to paragraph 3 of Government Proceedings No.1497-8/Cts.68-27-1 dated the 14th September 1927 requesting to send up proposals for temporary clerical and menial establishment required for the fourth Judge and to state that the addition of a fourth Judge will result in two benches working simultaneously on most of the days of the week and in a greater number of disposals. A larger number of cases will have to be prepared for printing and a larger number of decrees will have to be drawn up and typed. The work in most of the branches of the Chief Court office is already very congested and without a sufficient number of additional hands the increased work will become unmanageable.

I am accordingly to enclose a statement showing the additional establishment required and to request that Government may be pleased to accord sanction thereto.

I am to add that the extra expenditure of Rs.2,652/- per ~~mensem~~ annum may be met from the grant of Rs.90,000/- already provided in the current year's budget estimate, for carrying out the recommendations

recommendations of the Laws' Delays' Committee
